CHALLENGE: This is an optional challenge for anyone who feels confident with working with fractions.

Claire was sorting the bottles in her bathroom. She threw away lots of bottles until only one quarter were left.

How many bottles did Claire have to begin with? Explain your answer

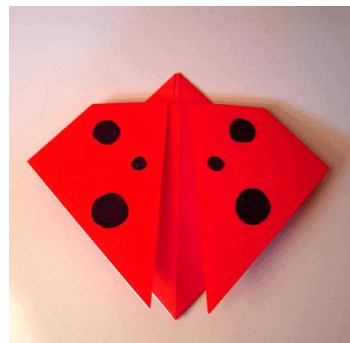

English

In yesterday's task, you used a sheet of paper to make your own ladybug and decorated it by following a set of instructions.

Today I would like you to try and write your own instructions for making the ladybird.

You may wish to use the instructions from yesterday to jog your memory of the steps and you may want to add some steps if you added any extra details, but the main thing is that you try and layout your instructions in a clear way and include the features we said that all good instructions should have:

- A title
- A 'material' section
- Bullet point/ numbers
- Imperative verbs
- Fronted Adverbials
- Pictures
- Detailed steps

Reading

I have given you 3 different challenges today. It is up to you how many you decide to do, and you don't need to start on Challenge 1. Have fun.

Challenge 1:

A preposition is a word that shows the relationship between one thing and another.

It may tell you where a thing is in relation to something else. E.g. The passengers watched from inside the plane.

It may tell you when something is in relation to another event. g. The excitement would not end until the plane landed.

Can you find any prepositions in the sentences below? Can you write 3 sentences that contain prepositions?

1. The donkey plodded through the field.
2. It was only a few minutes until feeding time.
3. Rain started to fall from above them.
4. They ran into the ban.

Challenge 2: Can you copy out and improve these sentences using expanded noun phrases and conjunctions?

1. The donkey stood next to the dog.
2. They were friends.
3. The dog was happy.
4. The donkey was happy

Challenge 3:

Can you draw a picture of two other creatures that would make unlikely friends?
