Year 3 Daily Tasks

Date: 17.7.20

So we have finally made it to the end of the Summer Term. I am so sorry that I didn't get the chance to spend the whole year with you all, but I hope that I will be able to see and have a chat with you all next year on the playground.

I understand that some of you may be feeling nervous about next year, especially those of you that haven't been at school since March. Please don't worry about the lessons that you will be doing in Year 4. We fully understand that this year has been very trying and do not expect everyone to be at the same level when starting back.

Please use this summer holidays to relax and unwind as much as possible, and get your batteries recharged ready for September.

You've all done so well and I can't express enough how proud I am of all of you for how you have coped. Keep it up and I can't wait to see you again next year!

Best Wishes,

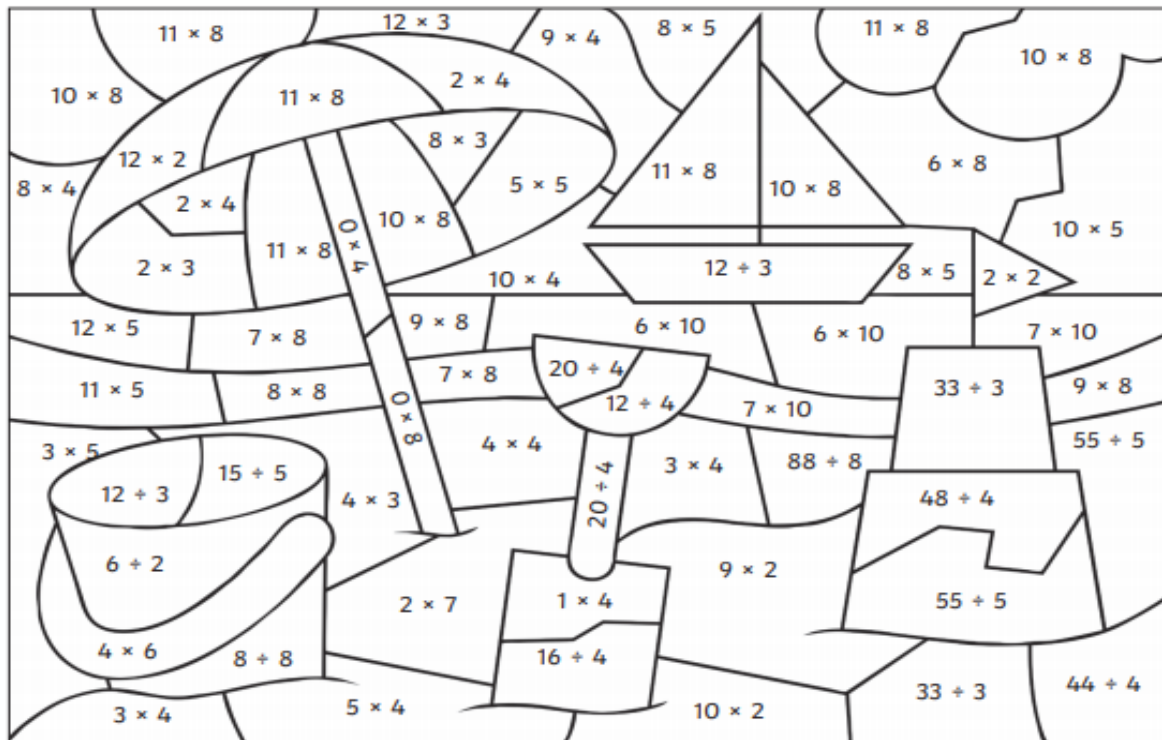

Mr Jones

English

Choose at least 3 of the following challenges to complete.

The Race

It was the final lap of the race. The sixty-sixth lap of hair-raising, one hundred miles per hour madness. John was all set for the victory. Around the final bend he came, then bang...

Everything stopped. John could see the flashes of red, green and blue flying past and on to the finish line. He placed his head in his hands and sighed.

How is John feeling at the end of this story?
Why would he be feeling that way?

The Trip

I can't believe I'm actually here. The towns below look so small and I can see for miles in every direction. The engine is whirring and there's a man in the aisle next to me eating crisps. "Don't be afraid. It's natural to be a bit nervous." Mum said before we got on board. I'm definitely not nervous now. It's brilliant!

Who is speaking?
Where are they?
How were they feeling before getting on board?

Haunted

Everyone at school was talking about it. They were convinced that there was something in there, something...awful.

I didn't believe them and I was going to prove them all wrong, there had not been anyone living there for years. I knocked on the door. Three loud knocks. My heart froze at what happened next....

Where is the child in the story?
What do you think happened next?

The Exam

It was the day after my maths test and we were just sitting down at the table in my favourite restaurant, The Royal Dragon.

"Choose whatever you like Danny," Dad said, "You deserve it."

Why do you think Danny has gone out for a meal?

Fireworks

Whistle, bang, clap, whizz!

The fireworks flew up into the cold November sky. Zainab was standing at the lounge window watching in amazement, when Robbie, her pet dog, came dashing past. "Oh no!" Zainab exclaimed and ran after Robbie to see if he was ok.

What is wrong with Robbie?
How do we know something is wrong?

It's not Fair

"But I didn't even do anything." Alex muttered as he stomped up the stairs.

Alex got the blame for lots of things because he was the oldest and should know better. There was food all over the dining room and as he walked up the stairs, his younger brothers ran into the lounge to watch television.

Why do you think Alex is upset?
How do you know this?

Reading

Choose one of the following challenges to complete. You may wish to complete more than one.

Three weeks. That is how long the ship had been like this; empty, abandoned, alone...

Now, all was still. All was calm. The ship lay there, as if in a peaceful slumber, gently rocking like a baby's cradle in the tranquil bay. The sea barely moved. It was covered in a thin layer of wispy mist that sat on top of the water like a comforting blanket, gently illuminated by the fading sunlight.

A bird landed gently on the mast of the lonely ship, pleased to have found a resting place after a long journey.

Everything seemed to have turned blood-red. The sun looked down on the bay from his position in the sky, soon to go to sleep himself, casting a crimson light over the clouds and the milky water in the bay.

Challenge 1: Read the story starter above and answer the following questions:

- 1) What had happened here? Why was it so peaceful? Had it always been so?
- 2) Can you tell the story of the shipwreck, describing how it happened? Think about where the crew are now...Are they safe or in danger?

Challenge 2: Think about how the ship became shipwrecked. Could you draw the scene? Could you describe it?

Challenge 3: Use your imaginations to answer the following questions.

- What colour is the sea? Is it blue?
- Why is this sea not blue?
- Where have the crew gone?
- How long has the ship been like this?
- What's the difference between a sea and an ocean? Is there a difference?
- What's the difference between a lake and an ocean?
- If a millionaire is shipwrecked on an island, are they still a millionaire?

Challenge 4: Try to improve the following sentences, using conjunctions, adjectives and extra detail.

- The sun was in the sky.
- It was a warm evening and the sun shone on the water.
