

Curriculum Pathways – Art and Design

Our curriculum allows our children to experiment and develop their artistic skills by expressing their own individual interests and opinions in the world around them. We ensure that our children are exposed to, and develop a greater understanding of, the different cultures, ideas or beliefs that have or are currently influencing society from the diverse range of artistic styles. This allows them to develop independence and reflection through their own art influenced by techniques from different artists.

