English

Happy Friday! I have really missed you all this week. I hope that you have all been kind and helpful at home and have enjoyed all of your learning tasks.

Today I would like you to go onto 'Google' images and choose a picture of your choice from one of your favourite stories. Or you may have the story at home. Can you write three sentences telling me why it is your favourite story? You all know what my favourite story is!

It is 'The Smartest Giant in Town'

WAGOL (What a good one looks like)

My favourite story is The Smartest Giant in Town because I really like how kind the Giant is and how he thinks of others before himself. I also like the illustrations by Axel Scheffler, as they are bright and colourful.

Challenge

Use the conjunctions 'and' and 'because' like I have. You may want to include some adjectives too.

Reading

Today I would like you to read five pages of one of your reading books. When you have done this, can you write a book review telling me all about what you have read? This can just be a sentence, but if you would like to challenge yourself, you could predict what might happen next.

I predict that...
