

Dear Nursery,

As part of VE day celebrations on Friday May 8th, I thought you may like to select your own activities from a selection on the school website.

Here are the links to the activities

Please take a listen to a sensory story I have included about a spitfire. Stories are great to listen to when someone reads them to you, but they are also exciting with actions and noises to bring them to life.

Sensory Story

Share this sensory story with your grown-up. Read through the story and use the sound buttons to help bring the story to life.

You may like to use actions, body movements and your own sounds effects to enhance the storytelling.

Hope you find this a fun and engaging way to listen to, act out and understand the story

Mrs Mogyey.
